REGISTRATION FORM

Upon sign-up, you will receive a daily email summarizing the custom liners currently in the shop with requirement dates. Challenge... Periodically work schedules get juggled. "We want to make the liner you need, when you need it." Solution...You will now have the ability to request via email to change the order position with another liner you have on order. Customer Service will reply with an answer to your request in hours. If the liner has not been cut, your request will be filled.

Note: Maximum of 2 designated names per account

A) My company wishes to receive by email a daily Summary of Liners being fabricated in the Liner Shop. I understand this summary only lists the liners actually in the shop on that specific day. Completed liners will not appear on this list.
